Library Report
March, 2013

Circulation: 10,586
New Patrons: 61
Reference Questions: 157
Special Requests: 49
Computer Sign-ins: 960
Downloads: 446
Cataloging:260(202 purchases/ 58 donations)
Cataloging edits: 489
Repairs: 39
Meeting Room Usage: /Study Room: 22
Bills for un-returned materials: 16

An author visit by Walter W. Bannon focused on his book “The White Pocketbook”. This is a true story based on his mother’s recollections of the German occupation of Belgium. The program was well attended and the book is available at the library for checkout.

Federal tax forms and booklets are available at the library. Maine forms are not sent to libraries anymore and may be downloaded or there is a phone number to call to have them mailed to you.

The book discussion group read “The Pattern in the Carpet” by Margaret Drabble in March. The selection for April is “Marjorie Morningstar” by Herman Wouk. The TNT (Teens & Tweens) group read books with the word “love” in the title and in April will read books that have been made into movies.

The art exhibit features local artist Varvara Harmon. Her work includes landscapes, seascapes and stilllifes. She works primarily in oils. Please read about her impressive background on display with the paintings. In the exhibit case, local teen Andrew Constantine features his collection of old railroad ties along with a history of them.

Reference Question of the Month: Ranged from a question about how to search for your biological parents to a price list on specific Depression glass pieces.

Happy Spring!

Inese Gruber