

Shared Borrowing FAQs

- 1. Which libraries participate in this agreement?*
Right now, the participating libraries are the Gray Public Library and the Walker Library in Westbrook.
- 2. Will I need to get a new library card from a different library?*
No. Your current library card will work at the Gray Library and the Walker Library.
- 3. I forgot my library card. Can I still borrow materials from another library?*
You will need to have your library card in order to check out materials.
- 4. May I return my library books to a library other than the one I borrowed them from?*
You may return items to any of the libraries within the shared borrowing agreement.
- 5. My materials are late. Will I be charged fees?*
Regardless of where materials are borrowed, the policies of your home library will determine if late fees are charged.
- 6. What can I borrow from another library?*
This agreement only covers items that are available through interlibrary loan. Museum passes, equipment, unique databases, etc. are only available to patrons who have a card at that library.
- 7. Can I place an interlibrary loan request through another library?*
We ask that interlibrary loan requests be made through your home library.
- 8. I have fines on my account. Can I still borrow materials from another library?*
Your account must be in good standing, as defined by your home library, in order to borrow materials. Any fines owed must be collected by your home library.
