Other Events!

Comic Workshop with David Bruggink - Wednesday, July 9th @ 6-7 pm

Explore making three-panel comics that humorously reinterpret literary works in the style of Lisa Brown or Kate Beaton. By the end of this session, each student will have created their own three-panel comic. The library will provide pens, colored pencils, crayons, and drawing supplies. For ages 10 and up.

Tree Identification - Wednesday, July 30th @ 6-7 pm

Maine Master Naturalist Mike Birmingham will introduce you to tree identification! For interested people of all ages, this class will cover the basic skills needed to identify our local trees and use both the library's holdings and digital tools to expand your knowledge. The learning will be hands-on and outside, so dress accordingly.

Super Mario Brothers Interactive Movie - Thursday, July 17th @ 1-3 pm

All ages are invited to don their superhero costumes and join our weekly Movie Time group in a special, interactive showing of "The Incredibles!" (2004, PG, 115 min.)

Pollinators Party! - Friday, August 1st @ 2-3 pm

Join us for fun activities that teach you about our local pollinators, including a scavenger hunt, a pollinator toss, and some coloring pages. You can also learn about our new Observing Pollinators kit (from the National Library of Medicine). All ages welcome.
